KADOW ENTERS RACE FOR DISTRICT 5 ALDERMANIC SEAT
Candidate Looks to Bring a Renewed Commitment to Community to City Council

MANITOWOC, WI - Local political activist and architect of Justin Nickels' successful mayoral campaign, Matt Kadow, has declared his candidacy for Manitowoc's 5th Aldermanic District. Kadow filed the required Declaration of Candidacy and Campaign Registration Statement with the Manitowoc City Clerk's office earlier today.

Kadow said that he looks forward to running a campaign focused on renewing the Council's commitment to the community; making the necessary investments in our community to help aid in economic recovery when it arrives.

Manitowoc's 5th Aldermanic District consists of Manitowoc's upper southwest side. It loosely bounded by the Manitowoc River on the North, Custer Street on the South, the Manitowoc City Limits on the West and S. 21st, Western Ave., S. 25th and S. 26th Streets on the East. The 5th District is home to Holy Family Memorial Hospital, Henry Schuette Park and the historic, blue-collar Custerdale neighborhood.
